DISCLAIMER

MENSTRUAL CARE

Key Data Findings

2024 DEVELOPMENTS

Higher cost of living affects purchasing patterns in menstrual care

Ongoing high level of concentration in menstrual care

In recent years, different purchasing capacities have accentuated consumer preferences for certain retailers

PROSPECTS AND OPPORTUNITIES

Income inequality conditions hinder the performance of menstrual care

The development of digital platforms in terms of sales of menstrual care products remains pending

Innovations in menstrual care seek to connect with the lifestyles of young generations

NAPPIES/DIAPERS/PANTS

Key Data Findings

2024 DEVELOPMENTS

Changes in demographic composition and economic environment pose a challenging scenario for baby diapers

Economic context leads Honduran parents to consider purchases of emerging brands

High penetration of traditional channels given the limited labour market

PROSPECTS AND OPPORTUNITIES

Challenging environment for growth of junior nappies/diapers

The evolution of digital media in the short term aims to educate and inform parents rather than capitalise on sales of junior diapers

Innovations aim to connect around holistic care of children among more conscious parents

RETAIL ADULT INCONTINENCE

Key Data Findings

2024 DEVELOPMENTS

Despite a context of economic pressures, the category of adult incontinence continues to expand

Category grows in competitiveness with increasing offer of emerging brands

Adult incontinence distribution still targets higher-income demographics

PROSPECTS AND OPPORTUNITIES

Greater openness to the use of incontinence products in adults favours the evolution of the category

Digital channels make sales of retail adult incontinence products more discreet and help to destigmatise their use

The use of incontinence products in adults is moving away from the paradigm of being exclusive to older adults

WIPES

Key Data Findings

2024 DEVELOPMENTS

Wipes expands by relying on multifunctionality characteristics

Category characterised by increased competitiveness with lower priced brands reaching young demographics

Impact of the economic context on the purchasing power of Hondurans boosts small local grocers

PROSPECTS AND OPPORTUNITIES

Growing affordability and adoption of new habits encourage product development

A lack of concrete incentives to make savings limit the development of retail e-commerce

Innovations aim for a higher level of micro-segmentation

RETAIL TISSUE

Key Data Findings

2024 DEVELOPMENTS

Less price volatility and more stability seen in retail tissue in 2024

A wider mix of options aimed at different purchasing capacities is a success strategy

Small local grocers still have high social significance in Honduras in the distribution of basic necessities though supermarkets retains outright lead

The commoditised positioning of toilet paper among local consumers is increasingly accentuated
Traditional channel remains highly relevant in a country where consumers have limited purchasing power
The success of innovations depends on their ability to offer savings

AWAY-FROM-HOME TISSUE AND HYGIENE

Key Data Findings

2024 DEVELOPMENTS

Favourable economic context for the growth in sales of away-from-home tissue
Away-from-home adult incontinence shows slow development
Innovation aims at solutions with a higher level of customisation

PROSPECTS AND OPPORTUNITIES

Industry boosted by growth in tourism, new openings in horeca and a greater focus on hygiene in institutions
Digitalisation in customer service processes for away-from-home products in Honduras has still to evolve
Innovations are presented as allies in company drives towards optimisation
