WOUND CARE

Key Data Findings

2025 Developments

Self-medication culture limits demand for wound care products

Sticking plasters and bandages remain the most widely used products

Beiersdorf AG maintains its lead through pharmacist recommendations

Prospects and Opportunities

Wound care sales will likely rise driven by the increase in demand from the growing middle class in Uganda

Industrialisation and safety compliance to stimulate demand for first aid kits

Focus on hygiene and protection to encourage wider use of wound care products
